

Italian language Courses for Foreigners: Learning Italian Language at the Seaside

Date: 10-15-2009 01:02 PM CET

Category: Science & Education

Press release from: WEB MARKETING TEAM

Viareggio combines the common features of small maritime towns - such as short distances, easily accessible facilities and services, warm and familiar atmosphere - with the comforts that one usually finds in a big urban centre.

The Versilia coast in fact, is a special place for several reasons. It is a very reach area from a cultural, culinary, natural and artistic point of view and it is famous also for shopping and nightlife.

Viareggio is one of the most famous and traditional seaside in Tuscany, with endless beaches, nearby mountains, an excellent cuisine and an exciting nightlife that make of it an enviable paradise for students of any age, during all the year.

And the Centro Puccini (www.centropuccini.it/) - Italian language school for foreigners in Viareggio - helps to make this place even more welcoming.

At Centro Puccini, besides a large variety of Italian language courses designed to meet even the needs of the most demanding students - Standard Italian Language Courses, Intensive Italian Language Courses, Private Lessons, Long Term Courses, Professional Courses, Courses for Teachers of Italian Language and much more - there are lots of services and facilities such as bright and airy classrooms equipped with all types of comforts, full internet connection, an outdoor terrace, a gazebo and a small gardens where people can meet between classes, facilities for disabled, and any type of accommodation (apartment, hotel, residence, camping).

In addition, the Cultural Centre Giacomo Puccini (www.centropuccini.it/) is situated just in the centre of Viareggio, near to the beach, which is just a few minutes walking distance. In Versilia the weather is usually quite mild also in winter that is another reason why it represents the perfect place where learning, relax and fun join together.

2010 Italian language courses dates and prices are already available on the net.

More detailed information about the Italian language school in Viareggio and Italian language courses for foreigners supplied by Centro Puccini, are available on the site www.centropuccini.it/

Web Marketing Team is a company specialized in the online web marketing sector.

We employ the network as an instrument of communication and work, and use the marketing as a medium to streamline the outcomes of our effort. We focus on search engines: our aim is to make your site ever-present and visible in them.

Web Marketing Team srl

Via Brunelleschi 4,

50123 Firenze

tel: 0039055290305

fax: 0039055290396

www.webmarketingteam.com

press@webmarketingteam.com

You can find this press release here