Press release from: Ambatchdotcom SeoContest

Agency: Ambatchdotcom SeoContest

Search Engine Optimization became a major keyword in the search engine market today, Search Engine Optimization is also known as SEO which is simply a method allowing you to improve your website ranking in the search engine. There are a lot of software released that help the webmasters to improve their websites ranking, but if anyone uses this software without a specific strategy will fail. Most of SEO strategies are not known to the public and because of that some organizations start to post news about it, and for the first time, a world championship for SEO has been released.

World SEO Championship is the first Championship about SEO, Simply they provide a specific keyword and all the contestants should try to make their website in the top search engine results for this keyword. This year keyword is "AmbatchDotCom SeoContest". There are no limits or rules about the seo strategies that the webmasters can use. The webmasters can use white, gray or even black hat strategies. The first prize for this championship is $4,000, so I think it worth the webmasters efforts.

Now get a domain name and start the game, and start the way to the first prize. Don't worry the registration is still open and you can now register. Even if you are still beginner in the seo strategies go and enter the championship, because all the competitors will share their secrets about the seo strategies, tips and tricks. So even if you did not win. you will win seo secrets.

In conclusion, Search Engine Optimization is one of most important keyword in the Internet market today, and it's time to start a "World SEO Championship" to share all the secrets about seo among all the internet webmaster.
