

Calendar - Kirgisien – Kyrgyzstan 2010

Date: 10-26-2009 12:42 PM CET

Category: Arts & Culture

Press release from: Jan Balster

Under the title „Kyrgyzstan 2010“ has just published the calendar of the German globetrotter Jan Balster.

The calendar:

The highest land in Central Asia, situated at the foot of the mighty Tien Shan of mountains: Kirghizia counts to in the least visited state of our earth with an interesting history and culture. When the eye can look, varied and untouched nature applies above valleys and mountains, moulder the capital Bischkek and nearly fantastically waves the sea Kirghizia, the Issyk - Kul - lake rises in the highland. Movingly likes the weekly market of Osch, magically legendary Silk Road and historically significant works the caravanserai of Tasch Rabat. This is Kirghizia, a region between breathtaking nature and hearty person. The observer succumbs to the fascination of outstanding photographs that is sedate in scene optimally.

Each leaf of the calendar is printed on both sides, a photography is in the upper area and in the low part of the calendars of the respective month. Additionally, spaces present themselves there for own enrollments sufficiently.

Bibliographical statements:

Jan Balster

„Kyrgyzstan 2010“

Scope: 26 pages, 12 photographs,

Duration: 12 months

Initially-date: 1. January 2010

Format: 11 x 17“, 28 x 42 cm

Production: coil binding, full-color interior ink

Lulu publishing house

The calendar is also publishes in German under the title „Kirgisien 2010“.

Available in the Internet: stores.lulu.com/trotter

Jan Balster

Leipziger Strasse 149

01139 Dresden

Tel.: 0351-8567900

E-Mail: jan-balster@auf-weltreise.de

Internet: www.auf-weltreise.de www.auf-weltreise-shop.de

Author:

„As globetrotters seeks the authentic he in the country and in the human being...“, Sächsische Zeitung / Germany
Photography, for him, is more than a profession - it is a passion. Jan Balster, from Dresden, Germany, is a freelance writer, travelling journalist and professional photographer, who prefers to work with simple analogue equipment. He is particularly interested in black and white photography and in FineArt prints. He is on the constant look-out for intense, lingering moments of experience - moments that prevail and continue to fascinate for many years.

About his trips to Russia and Central-Asia as well as plans, he informs on his Homepage: www.auf-weltreise.de

Under other has appeared from him:

Jan Balster; „On foot from Dresden to Dublin“ – 3100 kilometers on foot and without money through Europe; ISBN-13: 978-3-89793-124-4; 14,90 Euro; 294 pages with 100 illustrations; Berlin 2006; Language: German; edition ost/ Verlag am Park; www.edition-ost.de/programm-2/titel/518-Zu_Fuss_von_Dresd...

Co-Author with the „Self-Trip-Handbook“; Peter Meyer publishing house; 4. Edition; July 2005; 16,95 Euro; Language: German; contributions: Eastern Europe, Russia and central-Asia

You can find this press release here