Calgary, AB, July 29, 2006 – The MIM-Amigos Team (www.2mentors.amigohealth.com) announced the concept of Amigo Health juice that is giving the competition a run for their money. The combination of three superfoods - Goji, Mangosteen and Acai, at a fraction of the cost of just one of the juices is attracting not only business seekers, but people from the competition to join their team. Amigo Health offers these three superfoods - Goji, Mangosteen pericarp and Acai in one drink or vegetarian capsule.

The low cost to join (www.2mentors.amigohealth.com) of $49.95 ($10 sign up fee) combined with free business tools such as a free website, video email and video conferencing has the industry buzzing. The company, Amigo Health Inc., a debt-free company out of Denver, Co was actually founded by supplement manufacturers with nearly 20 years of experience in formulating and private label manufacturing of natural supplements for network marketing companies, naturopaths and healthcare practitioners.

Because the product is formulated and manufactured “in house” the compensation plan pays on the dollar in a 3 by 9 force matrix where people get paid from 3% up to 9% on 9 levels. They also have the advantage of paying weekly. The other “in house” advantage of Amigo Health is that they don’t have to go through the growing pains of most companies or outsource.

The Co-founders of the company is a software development company that allows the company to offer state of the art features and tools for their representatives.

The three superfoods - Goji, Mangosteen and Acai, have already become widely known through the networking and media industry. In fact, the Acai berry has become widely known for it’s anti-aging properties due to being featured on MSNBC News and Oprah. Anti-aging expert, Dr. Nicholas Perricone boasts the Acai berry as one of the most nutritious and powerful foods in the world. It is also known to promote a healthier cardiovascular system. Cardiovascular disease is still the leading killer in the United States.

The Goji is becoming widely known for it’s properties said to promote longevity, vitality and energy, It is appropriately nick named, the “happy berry” because it is said to promote cheerfulness and vitality.

The Mangosteen pericarp is known for it’s level of xanthenes. The pericarp or outer shell contains the highest level of xanthenes, which have shown in laboratory tests to have activity against several cancer cell lines. It is also known for it’s antihistamine and antimutagenic properties.

Naturopathic physicians who are joining Amigo Health for it’s quality product have said the combination of three superfoods - Goji, Mangosteen and Acai, just enhance their properties and when digested and released into the body actually alkalize the body.
