Bothell, Washington August 12, 2006 - ActiveRain, Real Estate's largest and fastest growing real estate social network is reaching membership levels of 3000 this week.

In less than 90 days The ActiveRain Real Estate Network has grown to almost 3000 members. Through no advertising, the membership has grown exclusively through enthusiasm and referrals.

The ActiveRain Community has become a great resource for interaction, knowledge, and news on the industry. Through a community blog, forums and direct contact, real estate professional across the United States and Canada are educating each other and sending referrals. "I absolutely love it and find myself working on something [on ActiveRain] all the time." says Agent Bonnie Cox of Re/Max Masters in Englewood, Colorado.

ActiveRain also provides significant support to member efforts to market their businesses. Through highly search engine optimized member profiles, members are being found online. Their profiles often climb above other search results to put any potential clients in direct contact.

In less than 90 days, primarily through referrals, The ActiveRain Real Estate Network has grown to nearly 3000. This growth and member enthusiasm is a result of the positive benefits members are finding in being able to network with each other and enhance their online presences.
