Press release from: Imperiali Organization

West Palm Beach, FL – September 1, 2006 – Today the Imperiali Organization announced that it has formed a strategic partnership with Strategia (www.strategiaonline.com) and its founder Bill Beane.

Strategia is a leader in building strategic planning and training tools for C-level to mid-level executives, incorporated in on-demand, online training modules.

The company has an impressive track record of outstanding results with their training content, having worked with such successful companies as Southwest Airlines, Vans, CB Richard Ellis, Bank One, and Genco, amongst many others.

Their high-quality suite of web-based, interactive executive training media, represents an offering of leading-edge technology and content, combined with turn-key, cost-efficient and on-demand delivery, any place, any time.

These interactive strategic planning and training tools are designed to speak to today's leaders and their leadership teams and are designed to fit the busy and sometimes virtual lifestyle of today's business executives.

The content and value of this customizable suite of products is designed to suit the needs of the the Fortune 500, as well as the small-to-medium size business environment.

The online video content will add value to both organizations and highlight Imperiali Organization's continued progress in its planned rollout of products, services and entities (including its proposed online university), which will focus on such areas as leadership, motivation, strategic analysis, and international business.
