Press release from: ROTOCONTROL GmbH

Ahrensburg, Germany (December 10, 2009) - Marco Aengenvoort, Managing Director, today announced that ROTOCONTROL is an approved member of the Tag & Label Manufacturers Institute (TLMI), the premier member-driven association for the label and packaging industry located in Gloucester, MA .

As a member-driven association, one of TLMI's top priorities is to deliver tools and resources to help members grow their companies and fine tune their business initiatives to ensure their strategic efforts are aligned with the ever changing shifts occurring in the label industry, and in the global economy.

“Joining as an International Member with TLMI, ROTOCONTROL is committed to the narrow web industry throughout North America and globally” states Marco Aengenvoort. “We look forward to meeting other members and benefiting from the support and services offered by TLMI”.

Throughout the year, TLMI hosts meetings and conferences for Converters and Suppliers to provide attendees with industry related ideas and solutions to ultimately increase their profitability. In addition to studies reporting on the current trends and technologies, company awards, and media publications, TLMI has also established numerous committees dedicated to the interests of both Converters and Suppliers.

ROTOCONTROL is also proud to be members of FINAT and Vske (Germany) Label Industry Associations.

About TLMI

TLMI is a member-driven association strongly committed to providing business solutions that enhance the prosperity of its members and the narrow web tag, label, and packaging industries.
