Barcelona, 22 September 2006 - A Brighter Place, a web portal run by students for students living in Barcelona, has just released its iPod Travel Guide, which is available to download for free.

The aim of this iPod Travel Guide is to make life easier for students (and travellers alike) to get to know the city. This eliminates the need of walking around with a travel book and, also, it is for free.

A Brighter Place's iPod Travel Guide, unlike most other travel guides, has a listing of bars, restaurants and clubs which one will not normally find on tourist guides. It has been compiled by students actually living in Barcelona. Hence, one will find local, cheap and "non-touristy" bars, restaurants and clubs habitually visited by students and Catalans living in Barcelona.
