West Palm Beach, FL - September 26, 2006 - Today Imperiali Inc. announced that it has received a letter of intent for $30 million of funding from a London-based international investment group.

The terms and conditions were undisclosed with the final agreement to be negotiated and completing within the next few weeks.

In addition, Imperiali will expand its presence and is considering a potential listing on the London stock exchange in conjunction with the investment and agreement.

The Imperiali presence in Europe will expand itself to the Middle East and establish a stronger presence in the marketplace and the deployment of Imperiali Inc. business plan.
