Four schools joined hands to celebrate Republic Day complete with patriotic zest and fervour at the Girdhar Padia Krida Kendra adjacent to Padia Guest House Pilani on Tuesday.

Though a blinding mist at Pilani sought to be a dampener and an obstacle to the 61st Republic Day celebrations, the enthusiasm of the children ensured that the event was observed with patriotic fervor, gaiety and enthusiasm.

Pilani home town to Birla family is renowned for several schools, CSIR Laboratory CEERI, the Birla Museum and BITS which is one among the top ranking universities of India known world over.

Jamuna Mishra Academy, Goenka Vidya Mandir, Hari Devi Jhutharam Shishu Sadan and Udairamji Padia Vidya Mandir are the four schools at Pilani which had a combined Republic Day celebrations. The Chairman of the Jhutharam School Syt Harsh Vardhan Birla as the Chief Guest after hoisting the tricolour took the salute at the combined parade of the four schools.

The celebrations included band display, recitation of poems and cultural dances to highlight the patriotic spirit. While the Senior and Middle Troops of Jhutharam School won the prizes for marchpast in the respective category, the relatively young JMA School emerged as winner in the Junior category.

Under the prizes for cultural programs sponsored by Goenka Pariwar, the Padia school band display and dance got the first and second prizes while the dance by the JMA Pilani school bagged the third prize. Shri Umed Singh Rathore retired DSP also gave special prizes for the poem recitation of which one was bagged by JMA Pilani.
