Focusing their efforts on their local market base, WriteMinded, LLC joined the Southern New Jersey Chamber of Commerce for the 2010 calendar year.

WriteMinded, LLC is a provider of web marketing and social media solutions for both the business and consumer market. Their growing business has enjoyed partnerships with companies around the globe since their beginnings in early 2009, and the membership to the SNJCC will allow them to focus their sales skills on their local businesses.

Businesses members of the SNJCC will benefit from discounted rates and specials throughout the year for WriteMinded, LLC's customized web and social media marketing solutions.

"In today's economy, there is a real need for businesses to work together and extend an olive branch to those potential clients that may not be able to afford normal rates," says Tracie Close, President of WriteMinded, LLC. "With the ultimate goal of a strong economy in mind, we plan to offer fellow members of the SNJCC our targeted and effective marketing tools at reduced rates."

Using the tools and events available through the SNJCC, WriteMinded, LLC looks forward to offering more of their signature services to local businesses.
