The Quarrymen Live in Dahme (Germany) - Interviews - how the Beatles really originated - newly discovered photos - the day John Lennon first met Paul McCartney - the first new Quarrymen-Single since 1958 - and much more...

In conjunction with Horst Fascher, founder of Hamburg's celebrated Star-Club, the German media company Garrelt Danker Medienproduktion, brings music legends into the limelight, especially those from the 50s, 60s, 70s and 80s. What better subject for this first episode of Star-Club TV than the fascinating story of the early days of the most famous music group of all time! Featured in the film are live footage of a modern-day concert by The Quarrymen (recorded in the German Baltic coast resort of Dahme), detailed interviews with Colin Hanton, Len Garry and Rod Davis, three original members of the “Pre-Beatles” (John Lennon’s 1950s group to which Paul McCartney and George Harrison both belonged), their first new single after 50 years and much more...

The GARRELT DANKER MEDIENPRODUKTION was founded in 1996 from a previous company called Rotraud Danker Schallplattenverlag along with which the record label called Generate Records also belongs to the company (both established in 1987). Garrelt Danker is the owner and managin director. Soltau / Germany is the company base.

The Garrelt Danker Medienproduktion do business in music and film production (entertainment and advertising), management, publishing and distribution.
