Press release from: Epoque Hotels

The modern Soho Boutique Hotel, a member of Epoque Hotels contemporary line Avantgarde, features now two new Junior Suites devoted to two characters – Krolock and Herbert – of the show “Dance of the Vampires”, created as a joint initiative of PS Production, Kare Budapest and Soho Boutique Hotel. Such cooperation of tourism, culture and design stands as a nationwide, unique example.

The suites boast all the usual services (such as minibar, complimentary internet, anti-allergic floor and carpets), but the rooms are furnished differently, with outstanding pieces of the ultra-baroque sophistication. The 74 guest rooms – including 6 junior suites – are all well equipped with the most updated amenities, including complimentary high speed internet.

Soho Boutique Hotel is situated in the heart of Budapest, between the Eastern and Western railway station and among many famous historical sites and landmark. The Danube, Váci street, the Synagogue, the Budapest Broadway, the trendiest restaurants, theatres and concerts are all located nearby Soho Boutique Hotel, easily accessible thanks to the excellent traffic and public transportation area.

Address: Dohány utca 64., H-1074, Budapest, Hungary, Budapest
