Press release from: Assmann Electronic GmbH

ASSMANN, the specialist company from Lüdenscheid for computer accessories and network peripherals also presents itself this year at CEBIT 2010 in Hannover with its DIGITUS® brand.

"The CeBIT is one of the most important fairs for DIGITUS®. We are using the days to optimise existing business relationships and to make further contacts." says Florian Assmann, CEO of ASSMANN Electronic GmbH. "We will present new products at the CEBIT just like in previous years and will give our customers the opportunity of becoming immersed in the brand environment of DIGITUS®" continuous Florian Assmann.

The visitor can experience the home office world, right up to professional network technology on 128 square meters. Products will be presented from the USB assortment in the retail range complying with the latest USB 3.0 standard, as well as Power over Ethernet innovations in the professional range. Assmann also shows product line developments from the Rapid network products series. Completely new HDMI splitters in an elegant design will also be seen. DIGITUS® shows again that quality can only be accompanied by appealing design.

DIGITUS® presents a complete Data Center as a technical highlight, consisting of a selection of network cabinets and an integrated, air conditioned tunnel. Optimum heat/cold exchange is possible in air conditioned tunnel within the Data Center because of targeted air conditioning for individual areas.

Visitors can receive explanations for professional network technology under live conditions and can convince themselves of the competence of DIGITUS® Professional.

The DIGITUS® Team is looking forward to a national and international audience.

DIGITUS® can be found at the ASSMANN Electronic GmbH stand in hall 12, booth C69.

Dealers can obtain further information from www.digitus.info. DIGITUS® products can be purchased by dealers from the usual distributors.
