Press release from: Deacom, Inc.

WAYNE, PA - February 24, 2010 - Deacom, Inc. will offer personal demonstrations of its DEACOM Integrated Accounting and Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) Software System at booth #1845 at the 2010 American Coatings SHOW, to be held April 13-15 in Charlotte, NC.

The American Coatings SHOW, a bi-annual event that brings together top paint and coatings development decision-makers, will offer the latest information about an extensive range of industry products.

As a product designed specifically for paint and coatings manufacturers, DEACOM paint manufacturing software simplifies complex business process issues by seamlessly managing all areas, including formulation, regulatory reporting, QC/QA, inventory control, production, sales order entry, accounting, purchasing, and retail Point-of-Sale (POS) in one, easy-to-use system. DEACOM will be available during show hours to demonstrate how manufacturers can reduce their overall maintenance and IT costs while achieving greater data visibility and integrity.

Deacom has exhibited at the American Coatings SHOW since its inception in 2008. To learn more about the DEACOM ERP Software Solution or to schedule a show demonstration, call 610-971-2278 ext. 15 or visit www.deacom.net.
