Essex, United Kingdom (Feb 26, 2010) - Leading fancy dress costumes supplier, Props n Frocks, emphasise their dedicated Customer Care Department and secure online services in terms of business priorities, in order to offer outstanding customer service to clients.

Available for contact 7 days a week, the Customer Care Department at Props n Frocks offer a service that is undoubtedly second to none. Their aim to provide the best possible customer service to those looking to purchase or hire fancy dress costumes is highlighted by the fact that they have made themselves so accessible to the public, whether telephone or email is the contact method of choice.

Props n Frocks also empathise with people that may be apprehensive about purchasing anything online, as it is a process that involves revealing a considerable amount of personal information. They are proud to announce that they take all of the security measures possible in order to keep their website safe, and customers can shop in complete confidence knowing that the website is scanned daily by 'Stop The Hacker'; a service used to safe-guard websites and keep them secure.

"It is essential requirement that our service is as safe, secure and accessible as possible for people wanting to conduct business with us," comments Head of Department Kelly Collinson. "We realise that it is the customers that make Props n Frocks successful, so they deserve to have the confidence of knowing that they are browsing a secure website and can simply pick up the phone or send us a quick email should they have any queries."
