PeriProperties.com is Premier Portal for Real Estate for Residential and Commercial Properties launched by Delhi Quality Services United Laboratories Management System Solutions (DQS UL MSS)

PeriProperties.com is one of the finest real estate and property portals on web. It provides a common platform for individuals and organizations in form of buyers, property agents, sellers, builders, real estate developers to exchange information and queries related to properties with Free Listing of Properties for Individuals, Agents and Builders. It also employs an inbuilt service through which the buyers can contact sellers or vice versa through Emails directly from the portal.

The design of PeriProperties.com is based on years of rigorous research and analysis of real estate requirements and hence gives the users satisfaction without bewildering them.

Apart from hosting plethora of listings on Properties (all types), Buyers Agents, Builders and Projects, it has also various utilities like Area Calculator, Compound Interest Calculator, EMI Calculator, Loan Comparison Calculator, Stamp Duty Calculator and other such useful features. Information on Vastu and Fengshui is also readily available.

One of the main attractions of PeriProperties.com is the FREE Listing of Properties. Properties can be listed for FREE by Individual Property Owners Property Agents and Property Builders. Free Listing is not provided just to lure Property Owners but provide features Free of Cost which are provided with a fee with other competitor websites.

Users can register as Individual, Agent, or Builder freely, and start reaping the benefits instantly by getting increased responses to their postings. Property or Requirement listings can be added free of charge under standard scheme. It is one of the most significant platforms for advertising of real estate projects on the internet.

Real Estate Advisory Services are also available for Investors interested in investing money in real estate. Advisory Services are provided to help you with ultimate level of perfection and experience on your Investment Ideas.

There's a strong searching functionality in place featuring a wide range of record filtration criteria and the user has the option of saving the searched records for further reference
