Bensalem, PA, March 18, 2010—Vital Path (A Stelex company) announced today that it will be debuting Migration Center for SharePoint 2010 at AIIM Info 360, booth 1641, April 20-22 in Philadelphia, PA.

“With the upcoming release of Microsoft’s new version of SharePoint, we are pleased to announce our new migration solutions for SharePoint 2010 are now available”, said Tony Kashani, President of Stelex/Vital Path. “With the increased scalability and enterprise focus of SharePoint 2010, organizations will have a greater need to move mission critical content off of legacy platforms and SharePoint 2007. By adding SharePoint 2010 support to the list other supported content platforms, Migration Center now offers that same efficient and cost effective solution to our customers who are implementing or upgrading to SharePoint 2010.”

Migration Center (migrationcenter.vital-path.com) is a pre-configured, desktop migration tool that allows business users to easily migrate, consolidate or synchronize their enterprise content, including custom metadata, users, groups, and permissions, without the assistance of consultants or professional services. Now available for SharePoint 2010, Migration Center also offers solutions for EMC/Documentum, eRoom, Open Text LiveLink, SharePoint 2007, and File Shares.
