London - October 30, 2006 – The Imperiali Organization announced today that they are organizing a new online educational portal for students focusing on international trade and business.

The program will be done in conjunction with Dr. Gary Busch and his World Trade Educational program.

The Beta testing program will allow 20 students from around the world to take this groundbreaking course at no cost.

All students from all walks of life and educational backgrounds are encouraged to apply to become one of the inaugural 20 students to participate in the program.

The program will also be in conjunction with the Imperiali Organization's new search engine, i1search, www.i1search.com, which has also launched its beta testing.

Applicants will be admitted into the program on a rolling admissions process and the deadline for all applications is Friday December 15, 2006 at 5:00 P.M.
