At the instance of the first night and Fabio Armiliato's role debut in Verdi's LUISA MILLER at the Zurich Opera House on April 18, 2010, Daniela Dessì and Fabio Armiliato signed a 5 - opera project agreement with the young CD label SoloVoce. The 5 operas will be released during the period of the next 18 months. The package includes a brand new recording of La Traviata (release in June/July 2010), Zandonai's Francesca da Rimini (release 2011) as well as the three Puccini operas La Fanciulla del West (release 2010), Manon Lescaut and Turandot (both scheduled for 2011). Peter Ghirardini (realsound.it) as the producer and Andreas von Imhoff, A&R & Marketing (Avi-Service for music) signed on behalf of the label SoloVoce.

Fabio Armiliato: "We are very happy and confident about this project with SoloVoce as it started already so brilliantly with the release of Verdi's Ernani this March." Peter Ghirardini commented: "Andreas von Imhoff and myself are very proud to have succeeded in convincing Fabio and Daniela to join our label with the 5 opera project. In these days it is certainly not self-evident to sign such a deal; we are very convinced that both artists as well as our cooperation partners will be happy with SoloVoce's efforts to release the operas on a worldwide basis. This is a perfect example of a very close relationship and partnership between a label and the artists."
