Press release from: Bianca Limbach

Having begun his career at 30, Rob Nadeau can already look back at a row of successful exhibitions in America, especially in New York. His work has been discussed in the New York Times and NY Arts as a “refreshing response to the crisis of painting in an increasingly technologically driven society.” Other than his works on canvas and paper, the artist has developed carpets

Located in former East Berlin, Germany, Galerie Markus Winter was founded in October 2005.

The gallery focuses on international contemporary painting, sculpture, photography and video art with a keen interest in conceptualism and progressive media. Therefore, the exhibition space is designed to accommodate each artist’s project without compromise (allowing for the flexible alteration of the overall architectural structure), and hence provides each artist with a highly individual forum. The yearly gallery program consists of eight to ten exhibitions, including solo exhibitions, as well as curated group shows.

Since our first exhibition, which featured an installation by the acclaimed German video artist Marion Schebesta, we have supported progressive young and mid-career artists from Europe, Asia, and the United States, working in all media. These include: François Boué, Jean-Baptiste Bouvier, Jim Lee, Bryan Osburn and Matthew Abbott.

In addition, we represent members of the Düsseldorf-based artist collective "Konsortium", such as Lars Breuer, Julio Ernesto

Herrera Flores and Deutsche Bank award recipient Sven-Ole Frahm.
