MetricStream, Inc., the market leader in enterprise-wide Governance, Risk, Compliance (GRC) and Quality Management solutions, today announced that it is participating in the Gartner Security and Risk Management Summit 2010. The conference is being held on June 21-23, 2010 at Gaylord National in National Harbor, MD

The Gartner Security & Risk Management Summit 2010 is the premier conference and meeting place for IT and business executives responsible for creating, implementing, and managing a proactive and comprehensive IT strategy for information security, risk management, compliance, and business continuity management.

At the summit, MetricStream will demonstrate its comprehensive and integrated GRC platform that enables companies to effectively manage business and IT risks and help them meet regulatory requirements. Companies can utilize MetricStream solutions to implement a formal framework to measure, mitigate, and monitor risks. The framework eases the task of complying with multiple regulations governing data retention, privacy, confidential information, financial accountability, disaster recovery and business continuity planning.

The Gartner Security & Risk Management Summit brings the entire IT security and risk management team together for a comprehensive strategic update focused on and aligned with business goals. Four complete programs within the conference drill down on Security, Risk Management, Business Continuity Management, and CISO roles. Each program offers a full agenda of analyst sessions, keynotes, roundtable discussions, case studies, workshops, and more. Session content will balance tactical recommendations and next steps with big-picture insights and strategy designed to help IT better align with business goals and deliver greater business value.

The conference attendees will be able to view a live demonstration of MetricStream's applications for Audit Management, Risk Management, Policy Management, IT GRC and Vendor Risk Management and Supplier Governance, components of MetricStream's industry leading GRC solution suite.
