New York, NY December 9, 2006 -- Cell Hut is proud to announce that it has slashed all prices just in time for the holidays. Now, customers can save even more than they normally do on all Cell Hut products.

CellHut.com has been a leading online retailer of cell phones at already discounted prices, and with these additional holiday discounts, prices have been marked down more than $200 on many phones. New phones are being added on a frequent basis, so customers can be sure to find all of the latest phones from Motorola, Nokia and other manufacturers.

Cell hut has also started to sell other gizmos and gadgets, and some of the new "non cell phone" products that can be bought include the Playstation 3 gaming console as well as the PARROT 3400 LS GPS system.

"We are very happy to announce the launch of this sale," said the company's CEO, Mr. Bawa Bhasin. "We want to thank all of our customers for shopping with us throughout the year and have reduced prices as a token of our appreciation."

The Web site uses Google Checkout so that users can purchase cell phones and their accessories securely so that their private information is kept safe. Cell Hut also accepts payment from Paypal, MasterCard, Visa, Discover and American Express.

The Web site has also been verified by VeriSign, so one can be sure of a safe and pleasant shopping experience with a company that will answer questions and address concerns both before and after purchase.

Cell Hut also offers various shipping plans ranging from free standard shipping (3-5 days) to priority overnight shipping.
