Spen Carney offers ideas and suggestions to people who procrastinate to the last minute when it comes to buying gifts for the holidays, and other occasions.

Rockland, Maine -- Last minute Christmas gift shoppers do not want to sacrifice quality, and they need a way to find the right gift quickly and easily through a web site that caters to procrastinators.

"The holidays are a busy time, and time is valuable. I created www.GreatStuffAndThenSome.com to help the many people who want to give a nice gift that will make an impression and be remembered, but they just don't have the time to drive around and go from store to store to find it," said Spen Carney.

The company offers Christmas and Holiday gift baskets, and other uniquely designed gifts for every possible interest. The selection and variety are very attractive and creative. The company also carries a full assortment of other unique gifts as well.

Gift baskets have become popular to give, and popular to receive. The challenge is to find the right basket with contents that will please the recipient, and be attractive to look at.

The site is well designed, and user friendly. It is easy to shop because the many types of gifts are easily viewed, and each photo has a written description. There is such a wide variety of choices that shoppers can find a gift in any price range and for anyone on their shopping list.

The company offers more than just gift baskets, as the name implies. "Then Some" in the name includes such items as prepared meals, Omaha steaks, Green Mountain coffee, Hickory Farms, salmon, desserts, breakfast foods, appetizers and hors d'oeuvres, kosher gifts and foods, low carb food, flowers and plants, candy and chocolate, soups, baked goods, cheese, Maine lobster and clams, scallops, and caviar.

Last minute shopping also requires rapid service and shipping. Carney says that part of his service is standard practice, not just something for the busy holiday season.

"You can select the type of shipping that you need, and we will deliver on time based on your selection. That is the way we ship at all times of the year, but for those who wait until the last minute it is the perfect solution," said Carney.
