The 2010 Edition of Best Worst In Online Degree Programs has placed Golden Gate University among the top ten online program providers and listed it as 8th best online university among over three hundred institutions. The publication is the oldest online program ratings service in the world.

For the past eight years Dr. Fred DiUlus, author of the e-Book and CEO and Founder of Global Academy Online, has compiled the stats and rated institutions providing online degree programs using a five point matrix. "The book's five-point ratings model puts emphasis where it belongs," according to DiUlus, "on the school's professors, their knowledge, credentials, experience, ability to teach and a student's ability to learn."

Established in 1901 in San Francisco, the University offers undergraduate and graduate programs in Business, Technology, Taxation and Law to meet the needs of working adults. The School of Taxation has the reputation of being the largest and most respected in the nation with specialized internship programs that offer students practical, hands-on business experience.

DiUlus points out that Golden Gate is the quintessential 'trolley car school' convenient to managers and those who want to be in the heart of the city complete with faculty shared with outstanding area colleges. With combinations like that, he says, a traditional or online student has a first class experience seldom duplicated in the USA. The Cyber Campus permits students around the world to take advantage of the school's outstanding faculty and curriculum to study on their own schedules using the Internet.

Best Worst In Online Degree Programs is free for the asking from the publisher, Global Academy Online, Inc.
