Long Island Fiber Exchange (LIFE) of Nesconset, New York was named one of four companies considered for the HIA-LI's 16th Annual Business Achievement Awards in the Small Businesses Category. The category is for companies with less than 100 employees. The winners will be announced at the HIA-LI's awards luncheon on September 14 at the Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury.

"We would like to thank our dedicated employees and our valued customers for helping LIFE aspire to this level. We would also like to give special thanks to the wonderful folks at the HIA-LI for bringing us into consideration for this prestigious award," said Herb Grubman, Director of Sales and Marketing, LIFE.

The HIA-LI's Business Achievement Awards recognizes the outstanding achievements and growth of small companies on Long Island. The winning companies will not only be recognized for their community involvement and support, but the growth in their business as well.
