August 16, 2010 – Airport Trans, one of the premier airport car service providers in the USA, offers discount to its regular clients, which makes their service cost effective and efficient. It has offered to give discount to all the clients who make their reservation online. The regular clients also have the privilege to create their account with the company and enjoy good discount on their bookings.

Addressing their new cost effective scheme, Mr. Brandon J. Jacobian, CEO of Airport Trans said, “Most of our clients are from corporate houses who prefer luxurious service and are willing to pay a little extra for it. But at the same time there are clients who look for cost efficiency when they book their airport transportation. This is why we have a fleet of cars that cater to all our different clients. Whether one is looking for luxurious service or international airport transportation service, we can cater to them all and promise to deliver the best airport service at most competitive price.”

The company provides their service at all the major cities in USA and the clients can make their booking easily. Their service is available 24 X 7 and thus the travelers can book their airport transport with them and look forward to a timely pick and drop facility. The fleet of cars provided by the company is well maintained which ensures that the cars do not break down in midway or develop some other problem. Their efficient service at economy pricing is what makes them so popular with their clients.

Apart from luxury cars, the company also provides with super stretch limousine which is ideal for a group of people and turns out to be cost effective as well. In case a corporate house is organizing a group tour for its employees then the airport transportation service provider also offer charter buses that are available for local transport service as well.

Adds Mr. Brandon J. Jacobian, “With our cost efficient and economy airport transport service, clients do not have to worry about traveling by cheap airport shuttles, which make them share their ride. Our point to point transport service at reasonable fare makes it possible for them to book their individual airport car, which helps them save their time as well. They don’t have to worry about waiting for other passengers to arrive and look forward to a comfortable ride as well.”
