FPS Logistics (Thailand) Co Ltd, Thailand's leading integrated logistics service providers and a member of the Leo Group Corporation, has obtained ISO 9001:2000 certification providing official recognition that the company's freight forwarding services operate at internationally accredited standards.

Kettivit Sittisoontornwong, President of FPS Logistics (Thailand) Co Ltd said: "Much hard work has been put in to obtaining ISO 9001:2000 certification from SGS (Thailand). The quality of our services is now acknowledged as reaching international standards and meeting clients' highest expectations.

"We provide services in Thailand as a member of the Leo Group, and also operate through the global network of the fast-growing Asia Pacific-based NVOCC and freight forwarder, Famous Pacific Shipping Group. We offer traditional ocean and air freight forwarding services, warehousing and supply chain management."

The ISO 9001:2000 certification which FPS Logistics (Thailand) received recognizes the quality of the company's services, managerial operations, arrangement of services and crisis management. FPS Logistics (Thailand) has set standards for its key operations and regularly checks and evaluates performance to ensure that its services satisfy clients and meet SGS standards.
