Philadelphia, PA – February 14, 2007 - After making stops in Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, 2008 Presidential Candidate, Daniel Imperato concluded the northeast portion of his national tour.

During his stops, Imperato met with many supporters, and spread his message about reviving America.

In addition, Imperato took the time to comment on many issues that have surfaced during the past week. These include, President Bush's attempt to reach out for the Latin American community, the Bush Futures Scandal, the North Korea Disarmament deal, and the escalation of security problems in East Africa.

Imperato will be returning to Florida to attend a Friday dinner given in his honor by the Reform Party. He will also attend their state party meeting on Saturday.

About Daniel Imperato (www.imperato2008.com)

Daniel was born in Boston, Mass (1958), and began his business career in 1977 transforming the manufacturing facilities in Israel through adapting them to the global marketplace along with bringing financing to the factories for global expansion. Daniel brings over thirty years of experience in global business planning and development and has personal relationships at high levels around the world. He is currently a Papal Knight with honors from the Vatican, was a board member for the African Center Foundation, a United Nations NGO, and the founder of Imperiali Organization (www.imperiali.org). Presently, he has organized a Presidential Committee in order to organize support for a run at the White House in 2008.
