Dallas (February 19, 2007) – Thompson & Knight LLP is proud to announce the Firm has been selected as one of Multicultural Law's 2007 Top 100 Law Firms for Diversity. The rankings are based on statistics compiled from diversity surveys submitted by more than 200 law firms.

“Thompson & Knight has taken crucial steps toward reaching our goal of becoming the diversity, inclusion, and accountability model for our legal, local, national, and global communities,” says Pauline E. Higgins, Partner and Chief Diversity Officer. “We are honored to be recognized for these efforts,” she says.

Multicultural Law magazine promotes diversity in the legal profession by encompassing power, leadership, and integrity. Now in its third year, the magazine is circulated to over 40,000 professionals in the legal community and strives to give accomplished lawyers advice, information, and motivation.
