FrenchCreek Production, a Franklin, PA-based manufacturer of quality Fall Protection & Rescue/Recovery Systems, announces the release of its NEW 2007-2008 product catalog.

“We are very excited about our new product catalog!” explains Carl Wible, President of FCP. “We strived to release a catalog design that reflects our continued dedication for manufacturing outstanding products, while combining the latest technology in the fall protection industry! We believe our customers will appreciate its ease of use, informative nature, and contemporary appeal.”

The 2007-2008 Catalog contains all FrenchCreek product numbers and descriptions, along with a host of full color photos. It is formatted with major category headings, including: Full Body Harnesses, Saddles & Seats, Harness Accessories/Options, Roofing Kits, Lanyards, Rebar Assemblies, Lifelines/Rope, Retractable Lifelines, Rope Grabs, Horizontal Lifelines, Hardware, Anchors/Anchorage Connectors, Ladder Systems, Rescue/Recovery Systems, and Assorted Bags. Major category headings also contain sub-headings to further simplify your search. Also included is a section illustrating the necessary components of a fall arrest system, and another section regarding OSHA and ANSI Standards.

For added convenience, the catalog can be emailed in PDF format.

Catalog requests can be made by calling Toll Free 1.877.228.9327 or by emailing fcp@velocity.net.
