West Palm Beach, FL – March 26, 2007 – Today the Imperiali Organization announced that its founder, Daniel Imperato, has been named "Street-Smarts for God" by renowned business trainer, Juanell Teague.

Teague is known for representing celebrity speakers such as Dr. Norman Vince Peale, Art Linkletter, Dr. Denis Waitley and Zig Zigar. She is the author of "The Zig Zigar Difference" and continues to work with top national speakers from around the country.

In a letter to Imperato, Teague stated, " You have applied your street-smart savvy work in Belgium, Singapore, Kuwait, Tokyo, Italy, Israel, Switzerland and other countries around the world. You understand how business, politics and religion integrate in the global cultures. And you know how to use this understanding to help your global clients prosper."

Teague also went on to state, "Through the years, you refined this understanding into your current theory of Global Favor. I was pleased to be able to work with you to help develop and refine this theory so you can teach others to understand Global Favor as you do."

Imperato who has over 30 years of global business experience lectures on business, religion, and politics and how those all intertwine in life. By utilizing ones knowledge of those areas Imperato hopes that he can bring about a Better World.

Teague concluded her letter to Imperato with the following, "I especially want to encourage you—I know you will make a difference—as you redirect your efforts into Street-Smarts for God."

Daniel Imperato is available for booking starting April 15. For more information on booking and rates please contact the Imperiali Organization at 561-805-9494 or visit www.imperiali.org, or www.globalfavor.com.
