West Palm Beach, FL – April 2, 2007 – As he begins to prepare for his national campaign in 2008, Presidential Candidate Daniel Imperato issued a national call for all volunteers.

Imperato is looking for volunteers in the following areas: communications, logistics, media relations, marketing, graphic design, web design, office administration, technical support, transportation, TV & film production, and computer programmers.

"We are now ready to have volunteers around the country. We have the ability to broadcast to our supporters and now is the time to start building our grass roots efforts," stated Campaign Manager Tony Hernandez.

In addition, the Imperato For President 2008 campaign will now be reaching out to colleges and high schools around the country to start mobilizing support for the campaign.
