April 11, 2007. Syracuse, NY -- Nationwide Beauty and Barber Supply is proud to announce the addition of the entire line of the William Marvy Company's barber poles to their web offering at nationwidebeauty.com. Nationwide Beauty previously offered four Marvy models to their catalog and web customers, and will now add the remaining dozen barber poles to the web selection.

Marvy Barber Poles have been a staple to the American barber industry since 1950. They now stand as the only remaining barber pole manufacturer in North America. In addition to their barber pole selection, Nationwide Beauty carries a number of Marvy's replacement parts, sanitizing products, brushes and dusters.

"Nationwide Beauty and Barber Supply has been a reliable distributor of ours for many years," said Scott Marvy of the William Marvy Company. "Adding our full barber pole selection to NationwideBeauty.com will help us reach more potential customers."

"We are excited to provide our customers with an even greater selection of Marvy products through the web," said Richard Kassel, President of Nationwide Beauty and Barber Supply. "The Marvy brand has a great reputation, and we are proud to carry their line."
