[Marco Island, FL – April, 2007] –Two of life’s greatest pleasures, golf and steak have been combined in Marco Island Marriott Beach Resort’s new south Florida vacation package, Tee & T-Bone.

Offering the best in golf and dining in South Florida, the Marco Island hotel package includes accommodations in a Gulf-view guestroom with a private balcony, two rounds on Audubon-endorsed The Rookery at Marco with complimentary use of golf carts, a $100 voucher for Rookery Steakhouse and daily breakfast for two. Available year-round, seasonal Tee & T-Bone rates start at $379 per night, based on a two-night minimum stay.

Located inside the new $10-million Clubhouse of this Naples beach resort, the Rookery Steakhouse is a unique Marco Island dining experience because it serves the finest prime beef from Allen Brothers of Chicago, along with chops, seafood, chicken, creative side dishes and decadent desserts. Travelers can also enjoy daily breakfast in the recently renovated Tropiks restaurant or while soaking up the morning sun on their private balcony overlooking the Gulf of Mexico.

The Rookery at Marco, Marco Island golf course is a private course recently redesigned by Robert Cupp, Jr., which features five tee boxes on each of its 18 holes and instructions at The Faldo School by Marriott. Committed to conserving the ecological balance on Marco Island, The Rookery at Marco provides areas on the golf course where native birds and wildlife can thrive.

For more information or Tee & T-Bone reservations, please visit marriott.com/property/propertypage/MRKFL and enter promotion code GFP or call (800) GET-HERE and mention code GKPD when booking via telephone.
