(EMAILWIRE.COM, May 02, 2007) Beverly Hills, CA -- Barbara Eden ("I Dream of Jeannie") and Hal Linden ("Barney Miller") have been set to continue their 2007 national playdates launching their new spring tour costarring in the romantic, two-actor stage show "Love Letters," written by A.R.

Gurney and produced by Scott Stander for GoGiGo Productions. Previously, Eden played opposite her erstwhile "Jeannie" costar Larry Hagman, and with Joe Bologna in other "Love Letters" productions.

The new spring tour bows in May with initial bookings that include playdates at The Ferguson Center, Newport News, VA (4, 5); The Newberry Opera House, Newberry, SC (10, 11); and The New Jersey Performing Arts Center, Newark, NJ (13).

Eden is currently doing interviews and personal appearances for Sony Home Entertainment to help promote the "I Dream of Jeannie" TV series new 3rd season DVD release. She has also joined Sony in developing a TV special with the studio. And the actress is featured in an upcoming Ladies Home Journal in-depth profile of Elvis Presley with whom she costarred in the 20th-Century Fox feature "Flaming Star."
