[Prattville, AL – May, 2007] – The Navistar LPGA Classic golf tournament will be held September 24–30, 2007 on the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail Course in Prattville, Alabama. The Marriott Montgomery Prattville Hotel & Conference Center at Capitol Hill, a Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail hotel, will be the official site of the tournament.

“To showcase the LPGA on one of the finest Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail courses – Capitol Hill’s Senator course – will make for an exciting week for the players and the fans alike,” said LPGA Commissioner Carolyn F. Bivens.

Some of the top female athletes in the world will be heading to Alabama in September for the inaugural Navistar LPGA Classic. The LPGA full field event will be televised on the Golf Channel nationally and internationally. Navistar International Corporation and Retirement Systems of Alabama, owner of the Marriott Montgomery Prattville Hotel, are the sponsors of this event.

“We are thrilled to partner with Navistar and the Retirement Systems of Alabama on this event,” said Bivens. “There has never been a better time to showcase the breadth and depth of LPGA talent and personalities. I am confident the fans throughout the state will be treated to a fabulous week of great golf and hospitality at the Navistar LPGA Classic.”

The Marriott Montgomery Prattville Hotel is the quintessential hotel for golfers. The Montgomery hotel features a five-bedroom Presidential Cottage with private chefs and a butler, for executives looking for the perfect golf getaway. In addition to the Presidential Cottage, the Alabama hotel includes a first-class, 90 room hotel overlooking the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail.
