Allegiance Capital Corporation, one of the largest private investment banks serving the lower middle market, announced that Kieran Pinney has joined its New York office to serve as a Vice President as well as adding Shane Mahmood as Vice President in the Dallas office.

“Allegiance Capital Corporation is pleased to announce the addition of Kieran Pinney to our New York office” said David Mahmood Founder and Chairman of Allegiance Capital Corporation. “Kieran brings a wealth of experience and a unique professional background which will allow Allegiance Capital Corporation to further grow its financial vertical. While Kieran has been with us for only a very short period of time, he is already involved in closing a transaction in the financial services sector.”

Prior to joining Allegiance Capital Corporation, Kieran worked for Franklin Hamilton, a middle market mergers and acquisitions boutique. He provided valuation, joint venture, merger and acquisitions, and capital raising services to middle market businesses in the financial services sector, including the insurance, mortgage and title industries. Kieran has helped successfully close over 30 transactions with deal values ranging from a few million to over $50 million in value.

Shane Mahmood, a veteran of the war in Iraq and a graduate from Cameron University in southwest Oklahoma, has recently joined Allegiance Capital in our business development efforts. David Mahmood added “Shane brings to Allegiance Capital the discipline and skill to analyze markets, develop business relationships and work with privately held and closely held business owners who are interested in selling their business, raising capital or working towards a transition of their business.”

Before working with Allegiance Capital Corporation, Shane Mahmood honorably served with the U.S. Army. While serving in the U.S. Army Shane was put into situations that required quick reaction and critical thinking to solve complex problems that plagued an embattled country. Shane uses the same skills learned on the modern battlefield to solve problems that arise in the M&A industry. Shane’s attention to detail and hard work ethic has allowed him to serve his clients and help them realize their business goals.

“Both Kieran and Shane bring a wealth of knowledge and experience. We look forward to these gentlemen making a significant addition to Allegiance Capital Corporation’s future growth” said David Mahmood.

Allegiance Capital Corporation is an investment bank specializing in financing and selling businesses in the middle market. Allegiance Capital Corporation was recently named third on the list of 2011 Largest Investment Banking Firms in North Texas (Dallas Business Journal). Allegiance Capital has won multiple awards recognizing the value it delivers to clients. Examples include: 2009 Dealmaker of the Year (Dallas Business Journal), 2008 Boutique Investment Bank of the Year (M&A Advisor), and 2006 Investment Bank of the Year (Dallas Business Journal).
