Trenton, NJ – Today, Imperato for President 2008, official campaign of 2008 Independent Libertarian Presidential Candidate, Daniel Imperato, announced that they have added Lou Jasikoff as their New Jersey Campaign Coordinator.

The Imperato for President 2008 campaign released the following statement on the appointment,

"We are pleased to have Mr. Jasikoff on the team. He is someone who brings valuable political experience to the team, having run for congress, as well as a understanding for America, and its principles."

Jasikoff, a New York native, currently serves as the Chairman for the New Jersey Libertarian party.

"I am very excited to join Mr. Imperato and his mission for America," stated Jasikoff. "Daniel Imperato is someone who is trying to make our country better. He has embraced the ideas of efficient government and personal liberties. I believe that not only is he the right person for the Libertarian Party, but he's also the right person for America."

Jasikoff obtained his B.A. in Accounting from Fordham University and pursued his Masters Education in Finance at Hofstra University. Jasikoff later parlayed his education into a successful New Jersey based transport company.
