Washington D.C. – Today 2008 Presidential Candidate Daniel Imperato announced that he was cutting his overseas diplomatic trip short in order to return to the United States.

From Europe, Imperato will travel to Washington D.C. on Tuesday where he will participate in the Green Party Presidential Candidates Debate at the Washington Press Club.

From there Imperato will travel to Reading, Pennsylvania where he will address the Green Party National Convention.

In between, Imperato will resume his normal weekly broadcasts which can be seen at www.imperato2008.com.

After meeting with key Green Party officials, Imperato plans on returning to Cairo with potential stops in Turkey and the United Arab Emirates .

Daniel Imperato has shown his diligent pursuit of accomplishing his mission to win the White House and become the first Independent President in modern US History. He has put together the relationships along with the personal tenacity and financial capability to mount a serious independent run at the White House.

To unite America, Imperato has called for a 33 million man and woman e-march, where he is asking everyone to contribute $1 dollar and one vote. More information could be found at www.imperato2008.com.
