New York - Today 2008 US Presidential Candidate Daniel Imperato voiced his support for the efforts of former President of South Yemen His Excellency Ali Nasser Mohammed.

HE Ali Nasser Mohammed is currently the Chairman of Strategic Studies for the Arab League and plays an instrumental role in the ongoing peace negotiations in the region.

"First of all, I would like the world to know that His Excellency Ali Nasser Mohammed is a first-class human being. His wisdom and his knowledge of the world are valuable assets for the region. I give His Excellency my full support for his mission for a more peaceful Middle East region," stated Imperato.

Back in 2006, HE Ali Nasser Mohammed announced his support for Daniel Imperato on his mission to the White House in the 2008 US Presidential election.

In addition, Imperato pledged to assist HE Ali Nasser Mohammed and the Arab League to become a more peaceful region.

"His Excellency is on a mission to rid the Arab World of terrorism and promote a positive agenda for the region. As a man who has many ties in the region, I offer myself to assist in any way possible. We share a similar vision for the Arab World and I hope that one day that vision will become a reality."
