Miami Beach, FL, July 26, 2007 – Epoque & Avantgarde Hotels is proud to announce their partnership with the Hospes Palacio del Bailío. This beautiful boutique hotel has been selected by Condé Nast Traveller as one of the best European hotels opened in 2007.

Hospes Palacio del Bailío is an Avantgarde Luxury and it is the first five-star hotel in Cordoba. Located in the heart of the historic centre of the Califal city, this hotel is a clear example of culture, well being, art, history, gastronomy and relaxation. The stables, the carriage houses, the barns, the Roman remains, the original, highly-valuable paintings and the beautiful garden today represent a balance between design, history, harmony, space and light.

Hospes Palacio del Bailío, which was built between the 16th and 18th centuries, originally formed one of the major properties of the distribution of Cordoba after the reconquest, and in 1982 it was declared property of cultural heritage interest under the category of Monument. It has 53 spacious rooms, extensive gardens, several patios, one of them overlooking the remains of an ancient Roman house; comfortable and surprising meeting rooms; the Senzone Restaurant & Tapas Bar, with local products and dishes; and the most complete services for relaxation and wellness in the Bodyna Spa.

Other Epoque & Avantgarde Hotels which are part of the Hospes group are: Hospes Amérigo, in Alicante; Hospes Palacio de los Patos, in Granada; Hospes Maricel, in Majorca; Hospes las Casas del Rey de Baeza, in Seville; Hospes Palau de la Mar, in Valencia;. In addition, two new hotels are scheduled to open in 2007: Hospes Villa Paulita, in Puigcerdà (Girona, Catalan Pyrenées), and Hospes Madrid.
