Press release from: Agency Sector Management

Agency: Impress Communications Ltd

CargoWise edi - cargowise.com - award winning provider of global integrated forwarding and logistics software solutions, has signed a collaboration agreement with Agency Sector Management (UK) - www.asm.org.uk - the UK's leading developer of customs brokerage software and first class support for UK freight forwarders and shippers.

The agreement sees CargoWise edi's award winning ediEnterprise global platform fully integrating with the powerful Customs processing capabilities of ASM's GeMS (Global eCargo Management System) to provide CargoWise edi's UK customers with integrated import and export Customs Messaging.

Richard White, Chief Executive Officer of CargoWise edi, commented: "ASM is a smart, capable organisation with excellent technology and a great support reputation. We are very pleased to work with them and have found their expertise and knowledge of tremendous assistance. We, like many providers of forwarding and logistics systems, have been able to rely on their technology and ability to extend our capabilities. We believe both companies and the industry will benefit greatly from the relationship."

Peter MacSwiney, Chairman of ASM, added: "We welcome the opportunity to integrate our software products, which provide import and export processing and documentation capabilities for the ocean and air communities into CargoWise edi's ediEnterprise global platform. With this agreement, we are helping CargoWise edi to further strengthen the ability of ediEnterprise to provide UK customers with an all encompassing freight management system.

"We see CargoWise edi's choice of ASM as its partner as further testimony to our claim of being the UK's leading developer and supplier of software solutions and first class support to members of the freight community."
