June 21st, 2007, Chicago, Ill –With emerging standards in mind as well as combining cool styles, and the company's deep concern for the planet , Bangedox Clothing was created.

Introducing Bangedox [ban'gel-dox] Clothing[®] , a new Latino owned t-shirt company is helping set the standard while incorporating environmentally safe materials such as organic cottons and earth friendly inks and dyes in their clothing line.

Organic clothing and green eco friendly fashion have entered mainstream consumer consciousness with a slew of media attention, and for good reason. Its great for the environment and it helps draw attention to a very important topic.

After a humble start at local flea markets the company is launching its first online store to the public ; the new site which is currently under construction will go live August 2007 and will be located at www.BangedoxClothing.com.

The company was determined to roll out a new t-shirt line that they could be proud of and know that they were not harming the planet, as well as help draw attention to a very important topic.

They feel they are achieving this.

The new site will also have helpful tips on saving energy as well as other useful environmental information that its visitors can use to help do their part.

Bangedox is grounded in the concept that the clothing industry and environment can co-exist, all of their clothing is sweat-shop free and produced in U.S.

Currently we have set up a page on Myspace.com/bangedoxclothing

Bangedoxclothing.com launches mid August 2007 !

We're more than just a Brand. We're a movement. [®]

Thank you.
