Los Angeles, CA—(August 12, 2007)— After rising on national radio charts, frenzies of press and recent nominations for the upcoming 2007 LA Music Awards ‘Female Vocalist of the Year’ and ‘Music Video of the Year’ Kim Kline pays a visit to the set of the show Down Low on Music Plus TV for an interview and live performance.

During her captivating one-on-one interview, the stunning rock star discusses everything from her small town southern upbringing to celebrity fashion. Kline completes the hour segment with knock out live performance of her rock songs: “Sick Reality,” “Inside” and “No Fool.”

“My band and I had a blast today! I have been looking forward to visiting Music Plus TV,” shares Kline. “I am so glad to have experienced the ‘Down Low’ program firsthand. I love how the website supports indie music.”

Look for Kim Kline at the 2007 LA Music Awards and the First Annual 2007 LA4real Indie Rock Fest. Details are soon to follow.
