Normally enthusiastic Poker player need no technical gimmick. The new blind timer for mobile phones could change this opinion, because this application was especially developed for Texas Hold'em Poker and proves to be rather a practical small aid than disturbing plaything.

Changeable setting options and an acoustic signal to announce the next blind bet are nice support to enjoy a real good Poker event and to focus on the game.

Handy BlindTimer is an ad-funded development of byteworx and the downloaded is free of charge at www.zelfi.com/en/mobile-games/for-free/handy-blind-timer-.... The mobile software is also available without adverts for euro 4.99 at www.zelfi.com/en/mobile-games/games/handy-blind-timer/.
