New York – (i1connect News) – September 20, 2007 – Last Night Imperiali Organization Founder and 2008 Leading Independent Presidential Candidate along with his wife, Lady of Zenobia Jan Imperato, were seen dining at New York City's Cipriani's Restaurant.

Amongst their company were George Clooney and his lady friend.

The Imperato's and Clooney were seated next to each other at the posh Manhattan eatery while enjoying a late night dinner.

Although the subject matter of the conversation remains unknown, Imperato may have been discussing his upcoming i1films release, "The Red Worm", with Clooney.

Clooney is best known for his roles on ER, Batman, Ocean's Eleven, Good Night and Good Luck, and Syriana.

Adding Clooney to the cast of "The Red Worm" adds to a high powered dynamic list of actors and producers that have expressed interest in participating with the film that includes Al Pacino, John Daly, Julio Herzer, and Sean Connery.

Imperato is in New York for the United Nations General Assembly meetings as well as his "Gathering the Nations" reception for dignitaries, ambassadors, business leaders, and special invited guests.

The event will launch the Imperato Worldwide Association, a project of the Imperato Foundation and will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Park Avenue.

Inquiries for the event can be made to info@imperatofoundation.org or by calling 561-515-6048.
