MINEOLA, NY -- On Tuesday, December 4, 2007 One Hundred Thirty Luxury Stretch Limousine, Black Car & Livery Drivers participated in a huge Holiday Toy Drive for needy kids at Eisenhower Park, East Meadow, N.Y.

It started with the 130 Stretch Limousine Convoy that also included Nassau County Highway Patrol, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots and The Salvation Army Toy Program that departed from Belmont Park at 11:00 A.M. The event included a live Holiday music concert.

The convoy from Belmont Park converged on Eisenhower Park for the VIP Ceremony at 12:00 Noon. Drivers loaded their donated new toys onto U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots and The Salvation Army Toy Drive trucks for distribution to the children.
