Congratulations to Lee Slattery who continued his recent run of good form when he finished in 2nd place recently at the Dunhill Championship at Leopard Creek GC.

Mpumalanga, South Africa 6th-9th Dec 2007 - Slattery overcame the disappointment of missing his tour card by the small margin of 77 Euro at the end of the 2007 season to bounce back at the tour school in November to gain his privileges for the 2008 season.

The week prior to tour school Lee attended HSPSE to undertake a programme of improvement on his putting technique with Phil Kenyon after a disappointing 2007 season on the greens.

Taking his tour school form to South Africa Lee found himself paired in the last round with 2 time major winner Ernie Els. Performing with credibility he eventually finished tied 2nd with Ernie at 12 under par, 2 behind winner John Bickerton.
