Bloomington, IN - January 20, 2005 -- Legally search anyone's phone records, including your own. Your personal information has never been more accessible, quicker or cheaper to obtain than it is today. At People-Search.com anyone can obtain personal records by searching dozens of databases and billions of records in a single search.

"Your phone records are for sale" screamed a Chicago Sun-Times headline recently. Security and privacy concerns aside, if you want to check on a cheating husband, wife, girlfriend or boyfriend, doing so is as easy as going to www.clickriver.net/peoplesearch. You can do a background check on a potential employee or check the location of a dead beat dad or mom.

The number one use of personal information search services is locating or identifying a missing person or discovering more information about someone for personal and/or business purposes. In a matter of seconds anyone can find information about you that you never knew was available on the internet. Using the fastest record search on the internet today, www.clickriver.com/peoplesearch takes advantage of technology and searches for information about you and/or others.

For less than the price of dinner and a movie you can search the same databases used by the government and law enforcement. You can have instant access to locate practically anyone including lost family, lost friends, old classmates, potential dates, neighbors and people who are missing. Find personal information from the comfort of your own home, and at a fraction of the cost of hiring a private investigator.

Searches are completely discreet and leave no record behind. The information is securely transferred from various multiple private, public and government databases and data centers to a secure page for the user's eyes only. Privacy is People-Search.com's number one concern and they deliver it 100% of the time.

For additional information on how to find information that you need for your business or personal use please visit www.clickriver.net/peoplesearch.

About People-Search.com
